First thing we are going to talk about:
Games	As this is our first anti-bullying ambassador meeting for over a term we played some teambuilding games to get us all comfortable with talking openly and sharing again.
Second thing we are going to talk about:
Questionnaire	Mrs Garland and Mr Wellington would like us to design a questionnaire for all children to complete asking them about how they are feeling, how bullying is at our school and what would help their wellbeing. Questions that the anti-bullying ambassadors suggested are: Is there bullying in the school? Do you ever get bullied? What could you do if you were worried about yourself or another child? How do you feel? Do you have a trusted adult that you would speak to if you didn't feel okay? Do you feel safe in school? How would you show sorry if your bullied someone? Action → Miss Lewis to type up questionnaire and send to Mrs Garland and Mr Wellington before sending out for the children to complete on Google Classroom.

Third thing we are going to talk about:
Strikes	Key Question → How do we expect anti-bullying ambassadors to behave and treat others in NorthStar 82? Riley B "with kindness" Hassan "no bullying" Summer "treating others nicely" Codie "no kicking, punching or hurting" Tyler G "no swearing" Tariq "being a role model" Miss Lewis reminded anti-bullying ambassadors of their contract that was agreed in September and the strike system. No anti-bullying ambassadors have a strike yet which the ambassadors are very proud of.
