Yes
First thing we are going to talk about:
Council members	Discussion around getting representatives from classes who have not yet got a school council member. Also the importance of keeping badges safe as they are expensive. Action - Check badges are in school. Mrs Garland to ensure that pictures of school council members are in each classroom. School council vote to be held in Beech.
Second thing we are going to talk about:
Points shop	All classes have been asked to give staff ideas of what they would like to spend their points on. Action - Check with staff this has been done School council members to speak with Chestnut and Aspen class to make sure they have put in their requests for points shop.
Third thing we are going to talk about:
WOW days/afternoons	Mrs Garland will speak to class staff to organise some WOW days for the pupils. Children are keen for some rotation days, where different classes represent different countries and we experience different cultures from class to class. Mrs Garland to discuss this possibility with Ms Yeo, as well as looking at timetabling Assemble this is an issue for some of the children
Assemblies	Action - Mrs Garland to look at time table to see when this can be done. Also to check if the hall can be used for assemblies. Celebration assemblies are taking too long and children find it difficult. To discuss in SLT how we can shorten celebration assemblies, whilst celebrating whole school success.
Would anybody like to mention anything else?
